A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA ESTABLISHING AND APPOINTING MEMBERS TO A NINE (9) MEMBER AFFORDABLE HOUSING ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR THE STATE HOUSING INITIATIVES PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM (“SHIP”) PROGRAM; ESTABLISHING THE TERM OF OFFICE; WAIVING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST; PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Agenda Cover Memorandum No.: 23073

Staff Recommended Motion:

Approve Resolution No. 284-20.

Background:

The City of West Palm Beach receives annual allocations of State Housing Initiatives Partnership (SHIP) Program funds from the State of Florida for the creation and/or preservation of affordable housing.

As a condition of receiving the funds and in accordance with Florida Statutes, the governing board of the city is required to establish an Affordable Housing Advisory Committee (AHAC). The primary objective of the AHAC is to review established policies and procedures, ordinances, land development regulations, and adopted local government comprehensive plan of the appointing local government and recommend specific actions or initiatives to encourage or facilitate affordable housing.

Section 420.9076 (2), Florida Statutes, provides details on the AHAC committee composition. The AHAC must have at least eight (8) members representing at least six (6) categories identified in the statute.

The City proposes to create a nine (9) member committee and the following persons are recommended to serve in the designated categories:

- An elected official (Kelly Shoaf);
- Citizen who is actively engaged in the banking or mortgage banking industry in connection with affordable housing (Thais R. Sullivan);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as an advocate for low income persons in connection with affordable housing (Suzanne Cabrera);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as an advocate for low income persons in connection with affordable housing (Shakeita Walker);

- Citizen who is actively engaged as an advocate for low income persons in connection with affordable housing (Craig Glover);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as a for-profit provider of affordable housing (Andrew Velo-Arias);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as a for-profit provider of affordable housing (Alfonso Costa, Jr.);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as a not-for-profit provider of affordable housing (Terri Murray);
- Citizen who is actively engaged as a real estate professional in connection with affordable housing (Julian Cover); and
- Citizen who is residing within the jurisdiction of the local governing body making the appointments (Jeremy Morse).

The term of the committee is three (3) years, and each member will serve for the three-year period.

The three proposed members above have business relationships with the City and may have a conflict of interest. They are:

- a. Thais R. Sullivan: The First Vice President of Valley National Bank is presently doing business with the City as a partner assisting with the City's COVID-19 Business Loan Program;
- b. Jeremy Morse: The Executive Director of Mental Health America presently doing business with the City as a social service provider and recipient of federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds assisting with on-street mental health services; and
- c. Terri Murray: The Executive Director of Neighborhood Renaissance Inc. presently doing business with the City as a non-profit developer receiving federal funds for the development of affordable housing.

Norman Ostrau, the City's Ethics Official, has advised that both state and county law provide that no member or their outside employer can sell goods or services to the city or have any employment or contractual relationship with any business entity doing business or regulated with the city or any contractual or employment relationship that will be a continuing or frequently recurring conflict between their private interest and public duty or impede their public duties. He is of the opinion that the relationships described above violate this law thereby creating a conflict of interest. He further advises, however, that both state and county law provide that the conflict can be waived by the city commission at a public hearing where the proposed member disclose the conflict and the commission waives the conflict by a vote of a majority plus one.

Ms. Sullivan, Mr. Morse, and Ms. Murray have made the disclosure on the required state ethics commission form 4A, and the commission is requested to waive the conflicts by approving Resolution No. 284-20.

Background:
On September 21, 2020, the City Commission of the City of West Palm Beach passed and adopted Resolution No. 253-20, amending and replacing the Comprehensive Fee Schedule; providing for an effective date; and for other purposes.

The agenda cover memo for Resolution No. 253-20 was accurate and described revisions to the Comprehensive Fee Schedule.

However, the fee schedule attached to the agenda cover memo and Resolution No. 253-20 was labeled as the 2020-2021 fee schedule, but, in fact and by mistake, was the current fee schedule for 2019-2020, that did not include the revisions described in the agenda cover memo.

The City desires to correct and clarify the adoption of the Comprehensive Fee Schedule for fiscal year 2020-2021.

Fiscal Note:
The estimated revenues generated from fees is included in the FY 2020/21 budget.

In addition, City staff assesses the history of each property to determine whether the parcels are subject to grant or deed restrictions or other circumstances or conditions which may prohibit, restrict or affect the sale or transfer of the properties.

The four (4) properties identified are residential-zoned properties, which have not been used for City purposes and have been identified as appropriate for use as affordable housing.

Resolution No. 259-20 declares these properties as surplus, authorizing the listing of the properties for sale with a real estate broker, with the sale proceeds going to the Housing Trust Fund.

Each contract for the sale of the identified properties will be presented to the City Commission for approval.
